

MONEY FOR THE SCHOOLS

Finance Committee Recommends an Appropriation of $7,000.

IN ADDITION TO REGULAR LEVY

Total Income of the Board This Year Will Amount to Nearly Forty Thousand Dollars—Report of the Auditor Received.

A resolution recommending to the city council that an appropriation of $7,000 be made for the board of school trustees, was adopted last night by the finance committee of the council. The proposed appropriation is to defray the expenses of the conduct of the city public schools until the funds of the school board become available about December 1.

This fund will be in addition to the regular school levy of 20 cents. This levy will amount to about $23,000 and the State appropriation will aggregate nearly $8,000, making a total of nearly $31,000 for the city schools for the session of 1908-09.

The committee received the regular report of the city auditor and audited bills and disposed of other routine business.

The report will go to the common council meeting tonight.

Belmont Gets Big Stakes.

(By Associated Press.)
SHEEPSHEAD RAY, July 6. —The spring meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club came to a close today with the running of the Lawrence realization stakes, worth $17,500 to the winner, which resulted in an easy victory for August Belmont's Fair Play with J. E. Malden's King James second, and F. A. Forsyth's Torante, third. Fair Play so overwhelmingly outclassed his field that he was practically out of the betting, being quoted at 1 to 4. He was only galloping at the end.

A Necessary Quality.

We require a certain firmness in all circumstances of life, even the happiest, and perhaps contradictions come in order to prove and exercise this; and, if we can only determine so to use them, the very effort brings back tranquility to the soul, which always enjoys having exercised its strength in conformity to duty.—William von Humboldt.

POLICE HOLD TWO FOR MURDER OF POLICEMAN

T. L. Smith and Capt. J. W. Garvatt Will Have Hearing Thursday Morning.

SUFFOLK, VA., July 6. — Thomas L. Smith is being held as an accessory to the killing of Policeman Geo. T. Smith by Captain James Waverly Jarrett Saturday evening. The officer was slain because he had arrested Captain Jarrett for drunkenness.

Smith, formerly of Goldsboro, N. C., was a member of the section gang on the Atlantic Coast Line of which Captain Jarrett was foreman. They had come to Suffolk and been together most of the day. When officers were grappling with the murderer as he stood over his victim who had just been shot three times, Smith, according to evidence that afternoon, struck Policeman L. M. Holbs and grabbed the handle of Policeman Edward L. Dennis, who was seeking to wrest the weapon from Jarrett's grasp.

The fourth shot, which went wild, burned Officer Dennis' hands in several places. Smith then ran away from the death scene, but has been captured and is now in jail.

It was testified at the coroner's inquest last evening that when Jarrett located his victim, after he had threatened to kill him as revenge for a prior arrest the same day, he remarked: "D—n you, you are the man that arrested me!" and began firing, the first bullet entering the left eye. The second and third shots were fired in the throat after the officer fell. The deceased had not a word nor had he a chance to defend himself.

The preliminary hearing has been set for Thursday morning. The funeral services over George T. Smith were held this afternoon, the Odd Fellows and police force acting as escort.

Jarrett and Smith are confined in Nansemond jail.

ving and likely is turn a block of Southern strength away from Bryan, and this with the organized strength of Johnson and Gray, might have given vitality to the allied opposition, but all these reckonings have come to naught because of New York's persistence. New York is neither for Bryan nor against him and with this mindlessness, opposition has crumbled to pieces.

Murphy Fighting Bryan.

Mr. Murphy had waited for some one else to take the leadership, as is generally believed, he will have the satisfaction of going back to New York with the delegation that it would have been lacking in political sagacity for New York to act against Bryan until the aggregate strength of the opposition was demonstrated to be sufficient to defeat him.

For the first time the allied opposition disclosed figures showing what might have happened had New York announced at the outset that it was for Bryan. According to this table, a total of 240 votes, or considerably more than the necessary number to block Bryan's nomination, would have swung into line with New York; the claim in detail being as follows: Alabama, 1; Florida, 7; Georgia, 26; Louisiana, 18; West Virginia, 14; North Carolina, 24; Connecticut, 1; Delaware, 6; Maine, 11; Massachusetts, 12; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 14; New York, 78; Pennsylvania, 48; Rhode Island, 4; Vermont, 8; Minnesota, 2; Ohio, 2; Wisconsin, 6; Alaska, 6; Porto Rico, 6. The total vote of the convention is 1,002, the one-third to prevent a nomination being 334, whereas the allied opposition claimed 15 in excess of this requirement had New York furnished the rallying point. A meeting was held last evening of the various anti-Bryan elements, during which the situation was canvassed and an agreement reached that it was futile to continue the fight in view of New York's inaction.
